Enclosure to item No. 3 -
Senate - 16th Oct. 1050.

Copy of Letter No. 8961/40791-U, dated 2nd October 1950, from the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, Education Department, to the Registrar, Karnatak University, Dharwar.

Subject: Karnatak University.
First Statutes of the -

Sir,

I am directed by H.E. the Chancellor to refer to your letter No. 2785, dated the 1st July 1950 addressed to the Secretary to H.E. the Chancellor on the subject mentioned above and to state that the First Statutes of the Karnatak University require to be modified as shown below:-

(i) Parts I and II of the Statutes are not given any serial number. It is not necessary to enumerate the various Sections regarding the powers and duties of the Chancellor and Vice-Chancellor. If the Senate wants them to be retained for general information, there is no objection to do so. The heading "First Statutes" should, however, be shown at the beginning of Part III, as the First Statutes have been numbered serially under that part.

(ii) S. 3. - In Statute 3, it is not necessary to specify the provisions of Section 23(2) regarding the powers and duties of the Dean of Faculties.

(iii) S. 7 - The words "Senate, the Syndicate, the Academic Council" occurring in clause (b) of the Statute 7 should be deleted as Section 12 of the Karnatak University Act already provides that the Registrar shall act as the Secretary of the Senate, of the Syndicate and of the Academic Council.

Clause (e) of the Statute laying down the duties of the Registrar provides for the performance of such other duties as may be prescribed by the Syndicate. Section 12 of the Act provides that the Registrar shall perform such duties as may be prescribed by the Statutes, Ordinances and Regulations. Since Statutes can be made by the Senate and the Regulations by the Academic Council, clause (e) of Statute 7 will not be in order. Wherever a Statute, Ordinance or Regulation provides that the Registrar shall do so and so thing it is his duty to perform these duties in view of the provisions of Sec. 12. The words beginning with "perform" and ending with "to" should be deleted.

(iv) S. 9 & S. 16. The remarks "withdrawn" against Statutes 9 and 16 are superflous. These two serial numbers should not appear against the blank Statutes. They should be deleted and the other Statutes should renumbered.

(v) S. 144. In Statute 144(E) (ii), the reference to relevant Statute should be inserted.

(vi) S. 178.- It is the function of the Syndicate under clause XXIII of Section 19(1) of the Act to fix, demand and receive subh fees and other charges as may be prescribed by Ordinances and under Section 29(1) of the Act, conditions under whibh students can be admitted to a degree or diploma can be laid down by Ordiances. The provisions in Statute 178 will, therefore, have to be made by an Ordinance.

I am, therefore, to request you to take steps to modify the Statutes accordingly. If the Statutes are amended accordingly, the approval of H.E. the Chancellor to the same under Section 28(7) of the Karnatak University Act may be assumed and they need not be submitted to H.E. the Chancellor again for his approval. Copies of the First Statutes should, however, be forwarded to the Secretary to H.E. the Chancellor, the Education Department and the Director of Public Instruction.

He referred to certain provisional decisions taken by the Poona University Authorities which differed from those of the Bombay University. After some discussion, it was resolved that it was desirable that all the Universities in the State should follow a uniform policy in respect of these concessions and that the Joint Board of Vice-Chancellors should be asked, if it agrees to recommend to the Universities the adoption of such a policy.

Item No. 3.- Setting up of District Cadet Committees for the Junior Division of the National Cadet Corps.

It was explained that under the existing University Regulations, an employee in a non-Government College is required to give three months' notice terminating on the date of commencement of the next following term, if he is confirmed or one month's notice if he is on probation and that a non-Government Secondary School teacher is required to give three months' notice ending on the last day of the working of the school, before leaving appointment. It was resolved that Officers of the Senior and Junior Division should be required to enter into a mutual understanding with the College or the School Management as the case may be not to leave the institution for a period of at least 3 years from the date of Commission.

In the case of Government Institutions also, it was resolved that Officers of the Senior and Junior Division Units should be retained at the institutions for the same period as far as possible; if it was absolutely necessary to transfer an officer, he should as far as possible be transferred to another institution having a similar National Cadet Corps Unit and be replaced by another officer who will be able to fill his vacancy in the National Cadet Corps Unit.

Item No. 7.- Allotment of Units to colleges in the Mofussil.

It was explained that the raising of further units was difficult because of the paucity of funds and of service Officers. The needs of Moffussil Colleges would be borne in mind while distributing new units raised if any.

In this connection the Vice-Chancellor of the Poona and S.N.D.T.Universities wantedto know the possibility of raising a Girls' Division. It was explained that a unit required 3 Officers and 90 Cadets. On previous occasions when enquiries had been made, sufficient volunteers from amongst women teachers had not come forward to receive training before appointment as Officers of the Girls' Division. If Volunteers come forward, the question would be taken up again.

Item No. 8.- Increase of allowances to National Cadet Corps Officers.

It was resolved that there was no necessity to increase the daily allowance to National Cadet Corps Officers. It was further resolved that the cost, life, etc., of the uniform of National Cadet Corps Officers should be investigated by the Education Department and then the question of revision of the outfit allowance should be put up before the Committee again for consideration.

Item No. 9.- Accommodation for residence as well as storage.

Secretary Education Departmentmentioned that the question of constructing armouries and storage rooms for units in Bombay and Poona was under active consideration of Government and in view of the existing financial strigency, the question of constructing more armouries for units at other places will have to be considered later.

Item No.10.- Audit of accounts of the National Cadet Corps Units.

It was resolved that accounts should be audited annually by the State Government Audit Officers and not by the Military Department Audit Officers.

2) The following letter dated 5th December 1950 from the Director of Public Instruction, Poona, on the subject of the order of precedence in Statute 173:-

"Subject: Statutes regarding order of precedence.

I have the honour to say that Statute 173 of the First Statutes of your University, pertaining to the precedence in the Senate among the members of the Senate, gives no specific position in the table of precedence to the Director of Public Instruction in his official position apart from his position as a member of the Syndicate (of which he or the Deputy Director of Public Instruction, who is a member of the Senate - is an ex-officio member). It, however, seems desirable that the Director of Public Instruction, in view of his official position as Head of the Education Department in the State, should be given precedence appropriate to this status. Ordinance 129 of the Bombay University places the Director of Public Instruction immediately after the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor and the Ex-Vice-Chancellors who are Fellows'. I, therefore, request that you will be so good as to move your University to consider the desirabi-lity of having the Statute in question modified so as to give the Director of Public Instruction an appropriate position in the table of precedence, similar to that accorded to him by the Bombay University".

RESOLVED that the consideration of the item be postponed.

Steps are to be taken to bring into effect the provision of the First Statutes.

KARNATAK UNIVERSITY.

A REQUEST.

Members of the Senate are aware that there has been a proposal to build up a fund from the voluntary contributions of the Senators and to institute a prize or prizes of the value, equal to the annual interest accruing therefrom. They are, therefore, requested to send in their contributions of Rs. 100/- or more to the University office and help the early realisation of the above-mentioned object. It is expected that this gesture on the part of the members will give a fillip to the work of collecting donations from the public of Karnatak.

It is also hoped that members will not only contribute their mite but will bestir themselves and assist the Funds Committee in its momentous task of fund collection.

(14) The following letter from the Director of Public Instruc-tion, Poona, on the subject of order of precedence in Statute 173, and the following draft amendments to the Statute as contemplated by the Poona University:-

Letter from the D.P.I.

"Subject: Statutes regarding the order of precedence.

I have the honour to say that Statute 173 of the First Statutes of your University, pertaining to the precedence in the Senate among members of the Senate, gives no specific position in the table of precedence to the Director of Public Instruction in his official position ~~xxx~~ apart from his position as a member of the Syndicate (of which he or the Deputy Director of Public Instruction, who is a member of the Senate is an ex-officio member). It, however, seems desirable that the Director of Public Instruction, in view of his official position as Head of the Education Department in the State, should be given precedence appropriate to this status. Ordinance 129 of the Bombay University places the Director of Public Instruction immediately after the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor and the Ex-Vice-Chancellors who are Fellows. I, therefore, request that you will be good as to move your University to consider the desirability of having the Statute in question modified so as to give the -Director of Public Instruction an appropriate position in the table of precedence, similar to that accorded to him by the Bombay University".

Draft Amendment (Based on the draft amendment suggested by the Poona University).

In paragraph 4 of Statute 171, after the word "Agriculture" in line 2, the following words shall be inserted, namely:-

"the Director of Public Instruction, if he is a member of the Senate".

RESOLVED that the consideration of the item be postponed to the meeting of the Syndicate to be held in June, 1951.

"RESOLVED that the qualifications of Dr. B.R. Dhekney fall short of the minimum qualifications necessary for recognition in Group A, but, in view of the fact that he has been helping the students in the absence of Professor C.D. Deshpande, the Recognised Teacher, it is recommended that the students be permitted to take the examination inspite of the fact that the Karnatak College did not have a recognized Teacher on the staff to guide the students in the subjects of Group A".

RESOLVED that the recommendations of the Committee be accepted.

(16) Letter from the Dean, Faculty of Arts, in respect of the appointment of certain Examiners.

RESOLVED that the letter be recorded.

(17) Application from Shri R.B. Kanti, a student registered for the M.Sc. in Organic Chemistry by research under Dr. G.V. Jadhav and who ~~xx~~ has completed 4 terms' work under him, requesting that he be permitted to work on a new problem for his M.Sc. Degree under Dr. K.S. Nargund.

KARNATAK UNIVERSITY.

To

The -Registrar,
Karnatak University, Dharwar.

Sir,

I wish to write to you on two points which appear to me to be of constitutional importance as they affect the fairness of the last elections to the Board of Studies in Chemistry. The first point refers to the appointment on University Inspection Committee, a person who is a candidate for the election and the second refers to the Vice-Chancellor's powers regarding the correction of electoral rolls. The case as regards the first point is as under:-

(1) Recently the Syndicate appointed committtees to inspect some of the Colleges; The Bagalkot, the Kunta and The Bijapur and Shri V.M. Dixit was appointed a member of it.

(2) The same Shri V.M. Dixit was a candidate for election to the Board of Studies which came off on the 1st Febtuary 1951.

(3) The dates of inspection were such that he could go to the colleges concerned and impress the voters more or less at the cost of the University.

(4) A similar privilege was not extended to the other candidat-es, viz., (1) Shri S.S. Bommannavar, (2) Shri Shastri of Bijapur, (3).Dr. R.J. Phadake of the R.P.D. College, and (4) Shri R.M.Joshi of the Karnatak College.

It will be realised, I hope, that when a candidate for election is also chosen as an officer of the University, concerned with the affiliation of colleges. the voting in the election is bound to be biased in favour of the previleged candidate. If on going through the case, the Syndicate comes to hold the same view as I do I request that the Syndicate declare this election invalid and order fresh elections.

I wish also to raise another point and that is in respect of the corrections of electoral rolls.

Principal, Karnatak College, Dharwar, has communicated the name of Dr. M.C. Tumminkatti for inclusion in the appropriate electoral rolls along before 20th January the last date on which to receive complaints about correction of rolls which according to the statutes the Vice-Chancellor is empowered to correct. Seeing that till the last moment Dr. Tumminkatti's name was not included in the voters list for Chemistry, I protested to the Vice-Chancellor and the Vice-Chancellor replied to say that the name was not included because it had not received the Syndicate's approval prior to 20th January, 1951 the last date for correction of the Chemistry roll. This, his reply raises the following questions which only the Syndicate can answer.

(1) What is meant by 'Correction of rolls? - Does it only mean correction of the spelling mistakes and changes of address?
(2) If the Vice-Chancellor is empowered to add or delete the appropriate names from the voter's list, has not the Vice-Chancellor acted prejudicially in this election?

I have to request you, therefore, to get defined in clear and unambigous terms the following term:-
(i) Revision of electoral rolls.
(ii) Correction of electoral rolls.
(iii) Vice-Chancellor's powers as regards correction of rolls upto the date of scrutiny of the nominations for election.

I shall be obliged if you will please place this letter before the Syndicate at the earliest opportunity and communicate to me their decision thereon.

Sd/- R.M. JOSHI.

Enclosure to Item No. 3.
Syndicate- 17-3-1951.

Statute 136 provides that the electoral rolls be revised each year in October; but this year the revision could not be undertaken, as the First Statutes were not approved by the - - Chancellor till November, 1950. Statute 138 requires the rolls of Boards of Studies to be kept ready 42 days before the election and Statute 139 empowers the Vice-Chancellor to correct the roll till the date and time fixed for the submission of the - - nomination papers. The procedure laid down in the two Statutes viz., 138 & 139 results in a certain amount of vagueness. Under the circumstances the changes in the College staff communicated by the Principals and approved by the Syndicate, are taken as the basis for correcting these rolls. Quite often the approved staff-changes have to be referred back to the Principals for instructions regarding the voters' list for Boards of Studies. Individual vacancies on the authorities of the University have also been noticed from other correspondence received in the office.

Government of India,
Ministry of Education.
New Delhi-2, the 17/3/1951.

Dear Shri. Jagirdar,

As you are already aware, in pursuance of their desire to promote cultural relations between India and foreign countries, Government of India inaugurated a Scheme to award 70 scholarships every year to Indian and indigenous students of other Commonwealth and foreign countries for higher studies in India. We have worked this Scheme for the last two years and encouraged by its results, are continuing it.

Last year the selection and arrival of scholars was a little delayed but we are now taking necessary steps to ensure that you are approached at the appropriate time for the admissions of these scholars. We rest our hopes in the knowledge that you will do your best to accommodate such students selected under the Scheme for whom admission is sought at your University/Institution.

In this connection it may be mentioned that there are varying academic standards in the countries included in the Scheme, and in many cases it may not be easy to establish any exact equivalence between degrees taken in foreign countries and those prevailing in Indian Universities and institutions. As the main purpose of the Scheme is to promote cultural relations and to encourage students to have an opportunity of acquainting themselves with our conntry and its civilization, it would be appreciated if foreign students are admitted for the University courses and examinations for which they may be found suitable. Refusal of admissions on the ground that they come from Institutions or Universities not recognised by Indian Universities would defeat the purpose for which these scholarships are being awarded.

You will appreciate that if the objectives of the Scheme are to be achieved it is essential that the sojourn of these students in India is made as fruitful and pleasant as possible, and that they carry back to their homes happy memories. It will, therefore, be necessary to make special arrangements for the supervision and welfare of these students who come to study here and also to provide them adequate facilities for and opportunities of seeing places of interest during their vacations and other holidays. We shall be grateful if you kindly, give your attention to this aspect of the Scheme and make arrangements for:-

(i) Giving warm reception to these scholars as soon as they come to joint your University/Institution.

(ii) advice and guidance to these scholars on all matters concerning their work and welfare and to encourage them to take part in healthy extra-curricular activities.

(iii) suitable boarding and lodging for these scholars. This is of utmost importance as these scholars are quite new to this country and require adaptation to the new environments. Indeed, admission would not be of much value if hostel accommodation were not arranged.

(iv) lodging these students during their vacations with Indian families as paying guests or otherwise, so

so that they may come to know Indian life.

(v) site seeing tours of these students ie., planning of holidays of these students if possible in batches in such a way that they should see the maximum number of historical and other places of interest during their stay in India.

I earnestly hope that you will kindly give all possible assistance and cooperation in the implementation of the Scheme. I need hardly add that were it not for the unflinching co-operation given us by you in the past, the plan would have not met with the success it has.

I would be very much obliged if you were to let me have your comments on the various points raised in this letter.

Yours sincerely,

Tara Chand

Subject: DONATIONS to the Karnatak University.

Respected Sir,

Kindly excuse me for the laziness in writing to you after a considerable delay.

I have a desire from the year 1950 to donate landed property measuring about 5 Acres, as first instalment which is lying in the Karnatak of Madras State, to the Karnatak University. I have very carefully considered the point of Education of the Nation and as a responsible subject of the Republic of India, it is my duty to help the public through the donations.

To do a good deed is really very difficult task which I experienced and a number of drawbacks are foreseen. My friends are encouraging while relatives discourage me. The most discouragi-ng points are (1) The property division deed is to be got signed by my brother xx as the previous division deed is of the time of my minor age, and also without knowing my intention which I kept secret and request you also not to disclose at this stage (2) The department in which I am employed has refused the leave and has put me to blame. However, I assure you that I will never drop the question of donation and will face the things that may come on my way provided that the Karnatak University decides to accept my donation.

Yours faithfully,

Subject: Eligibility Certificates.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 2560 of 6th April, 1951, on the subject noted above, I have the honour to say that it is now too late to ask for the passing certificates from the First Year students for the issue of final eligibility certificates, as the College is closed after declaration of the First Year results and the students have left for the Summer Vacation.

These certificates could have been collected from all the students before the commencement of the F.Y. examination if a reply to my letter No. 3871 of 16-2-1951, was received in good time.. It is now not possible to obtain the said certificates from the students. It is suggested that, this time, the eligibility certificates may be issued on the strength of the certificates of marks as it was done last year by the Registrar, Bombay University. From the next academic year, arrangements will be made to obtain all certificates specified in the form of application for the eligibility certificate in good time.

Yours faithfully,

6. The Hon. Sir H.V.Divatia, Kt., Vice-Chancellor, Gujarat University.

1. The main recommendations of the University Commission Report in so far as they affect the various Universities.

Resolved that the consideration of the item be postponsed.

2. The following resolution sponsored by the Bombay University before the Inter-University Board:

" 5(i) That the National language should be adopted as the medium of instruction at the University stage and English should continue as the medium of instruction until suitable text books and qualified teachers are available for imparting instruction through the National language".

Resolved that the consideration of the item be postponed.

3. Deputation to the Hon. the Minister of Education to abolish the S.S.C.Examination so far as the Statutory Universities in the Bombay State are concerned and to allow them to take their own Entrance examination.

Resolved that this Board is of the opinion that each University should be allowed to institute its own Entrance Examination for enrolment of students in the University to be held in such subjects and in such manner as may be prescribed by the Statutes and requests the Government to give its consent in that behalf. If such permission is granted by the Government it will not be difficult for the Universities in the State to arrive at a common standard of attainment and efficiency.

4. Prescribing uniform rules for Migration of students from one University to another in the Bombay State;

5 Desirability of prescribing a uniform curriculum in the Universities of the Bombay State.

Resolved that this Board is of the opinion that those Statutory Universities in the State which have substantially adopted the syllabii and the standards of examination prevailing in th. Bombay University should have free migration of students under some uniform rules from one University to another in the Bombay State.

6. Desirability of changing the nomenclature of the teachers of the Universities to the effect that the University Professors only should be designated as Professors and the rest as Readers and lecturers.

Resolved that this Board is of the opinion that at the present juncture there is no need to change the nomenclature of the teachers of the Universities.

7. Complaint received from Mr. K.K.Budhecha against his non-admission to the Birla Vishwakarma Mahavidyalaya and the remarks of the Principal in the matter.

Resolved that this Board is of the opinion that in this particular case which is the subject matter of the correspondence it has no jurisdiction to interfere with the internal management of a private college, but the Board records its opinion that admission to Govt. colleges and institutions should be 75% on merits and 25% in accordance with the rules to be framed in that behalf by the Government, and admission to non-Govt. colleges and institutions should be 50% on merits and 50% in accordance with the rules framed in that behalf with the consent of the Government.

8. The following letter from the Vice-Chancellor, Baroda - University:-

> " I have just received the minutes of the meeting of the Joint Board of the Universities in the State of Bombay.
> With regard to item No. 2 I would like you to clarify that in lieu of a classical or a modern European language a student proposing to go in for Science course should be allowed to take an additional subject either in the Science group or in the Mathematics group.
> Please make this clarification."

Resolved that the minutes of the meeting of the Joint-Board dated the 7th June 1950 be corrected by specifying that in regard to item No. 2, the Vice-Chancellor of the Baroda University was of the opinion that in lieu of a classical or a Modern European language a student proposing to go in for science course should be allowed to take an additional subject in the Science group or the Mathematics group.

9. Letter from the Under-Secretary to the Govt. of Bombay forwarding copies of the decision recorded by the State Advisory Committee on the question of concessions to be given to N.C.C. students:-

" I am directed to state that the question of giving certain concessions and facilities to the N.C.C. cadets passing the Certificate B & C exam. was discussed in the State Advisory Committee meetings held on 18-3-50 and 19-8-50 and that in the meeting held on 19-10-50 it was resolved that to ensure uniformity in regard to these concessions granted to the cadets by the various Universities in the State, the Jt. Board of Vice-Chancellors should be requested to consider the question and, if it agreed to recommend to the Universities the adoption of a uniform policy in the matter. I am accordingly to forward herewith* copies of the decisions recorded by the committee in its two meetings held on 18-3-50 and 19- 8-50 and to request you to place the matter before the next meeting of the Jt. Board for its consideration. Any decision taken in the matter may kindly be communicated to this Department .".

*With regard to concessions and facilities for cadets who have obtained certificates B & C the Committee was informed that the Bombay University had already resolved to extend to candidates obtaining the B & C certificates the same concessions as were available to cadets obtaining A2 and B2 certifidates in the U.O.T.C. It was resolved that other Universities should be asked to consider the extension of the same facilities.

*It was stated that N.C.C. cadets were already being given preference for admission to Engineering colleges. It was -- resolved that the question of giving similar privileges in respect of admission to medical colleges and of giving preference to members of the medical units of N.C.C. for -- appointment as House Surgeons should be taken up at once.

Resolved that this Board is of the opinion that the N.C.C. cadets should not be allowed any exemptions from appearing at -- any subject or subjects in the respective exams. of the Universities by reason of their having obtained B & C certificates. The Board recommends that the cadets may be granted various other concessions and facilities by way of admissions to Law, Engineering, Medical and other courses or the posts of house surgeons or Government service and the like, but considers that concessions by way of exempting them from appearing at a subject or subjects at the University examinations would really be tantamount to lowering the standard of efficiency and attainment.

This Board is also of the opinion that the Government should make xx proper provision for starting a Women's N.C.C. at an appropriate centre or centres. The senior N.C.C. should be started th a sufficient number of cadets and professors willing to ceive education in Military training to qualify themselves to be teachers in that subject. The Board strongly recommends that as in the case of Men N.C.C. the cost of the Women's N.C.C. should be borne by Government and not by the individual colleges.

10. Letter from the Under-Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated 20-10-50 to the Secretary, Joint Board of the Vice-Chancellors:-

"I am directed to refer to the 2nd para of your letter No. 19378 of 19/21-6-50 on the subject mentioned above and to state that admissions to non-Govt. colleges are made by the college authorities concerned in accordance with -- their own rules and regulations, while the resolution on item No. 6 passed at the meeting of the Jt. Board of the Vice-Chancellors held on the 7-6-50 seems to imply that Govt. constitutes a Board or committee for admission even to non-Govt. colleges. As the resolution is thus not very clear, Govt. considers that it would be useful if Surgeon-General, the Jt. Director of Technical Education, the Director of Agriculture were invited at the next -- meeting of the Jt. Board of the University Vice-Chancellors to consider the question in greater detail. I am, therefore, to request you to arrange for these officers attending the next meeting of the Jt. Board for consideration of the question."

Resolved that the Secretary of the Joint Board be asked to send a reply to the Under-Secretary to the Government of Bombay to the following effect:-

"In reply to your letter No. USG.3250-U d/-the 20th November 1950, on the subject of admissions of students to special -- institutions, I have the honour by direction of the Jt. -- Board of Vice-Chancellors of the Statutory Universities in the State of Bombay, to state as under:

The Jt. Board is aware that admissions to non-government colleges are made by the college authorities concerned -- and are not considered by the Board or Committee constituted by Govt. for admission to Govt. colleges. In fact in my letter No. 19378, d/- 19/21st June 1950, it has been pointed out in the last sentence that the College of -- Pharmacy, Ahmedabad, not being a Govt. institution would have to be excluded from the operation of the resolution which was intended to apply only to those colleges to which the Government regulates the admission of students. Under the circumstances, the Jt. Board does not think that any useful purpose would be served by inviting the Surgeon-

General, the Jt. Director of Technical Education and the Director of Agriculture to a meeting of the Jt. Board to consider the question in greater detail as suggested by you.

I may here add that the Jt. Board at its last meeting recorded its opinion that admissions to Government colleges and institutions should be made on the following basis: -- 75% on the merits of the candidates and 25% in accordance with the rules to be framed in that behalf by the Govt., so far as Govt. colleges and institutions are concerned, and 50% on merits and 50% in accordance with the rules framed in that behalf with the consent of the Govt. so far as non-Govt. colleges and institutions are concerned".

11. Letter from the Ag. Registrar, Baroda University, requesting that the correspondence be placed before the Jt. Board of -- Vice-Chancellors.

(Already dealt with in item Nos. 4 and 5).

12. The following letter from the Dy. Secretary to the Govt. of Bombay, Local Self-Government to the Chairman, Jt. Board of Vice-Chancellors:-

Sub: B.J. Medical College, Ahmeda
Admissions to -

"I am directed to refer to item No. 8 of the minutes of a meeting of the Jt. Board held on the 7th June 1950, and to state for your information that during 1949 about 100 applications were received from students who had passed the Inter Science (B Group) examination from the Bombay University and from these 51 students were admitted to the B.J. Medical College, Ahmedabad".

Resolved that the Board is of the opinion that the reply does not deal with the point which was raised in the resolution on item No. 8 of the agenda of the meeting of the Jt. Board held on 7th June 1950. The information required is on the point as to how many qualified applicants from the Gujarat University area were refused admission in the B.J. Medical College, Poona and the B.J. Medical College, Ahmedabad respectively.

13. Letter d/- 31-10-50 from the Registrar, Baroda University to the Secretary, Jt. Board of Vice-Chancellors.

(9) Letter from Shri A. Laxmanswami Mudliar, Chairman of the Association of the Universities of the British Commonwealth, requesting the University to enrol itself as a member of the Association.

(The Association is intended to be a focal point for all the Universities in the Commonwealth. 9 Indian Universities have already enrolled themselves as members of the Association. The fees per year are -

Subscription fee of £. 80 (approximately Rs. 1,070/-) and other minor service fees of about £. 30/

RESOLVED that the letter be recorded.

(10) Two letters fro Professor R.M. Joshi regarding Instructions to Examiners, Scales of Remuneration, Travelling and Halting Allowances etc. for the 1951 Examinations.

(In his letter dated 1st May 1951, Professor R.M. Joshi contends -

As he and his five other colleagues did not receive the pamphlets of Scales of Remuneration to the Examiners prior to their acceptance, and as there was no indication of any reduction, they do not feel themselves bound by the new scales.

In his letter dated 5th May 1951, Professor R.M. Joshi raised the following objections to the new scales:-

1) The Scales of Remuneration as sanctioned do not mention any local conveyance allowance to examiners residing in Dharwar for any meeting of Examiners they attend.

2) The scales of remuneration do not provide any halting or daily allowance to examiners when they are called to attend meetings or go out of their stations whereas halting allowance is granted to the members of the other University bodies when they come from outside to Dharwar.

3) Incidental expenses sanctioned in the scales do not cover more than a very small part of the expenses actually incurred.

4) The sanctioned scales do not provide any allowance to the Convener. The rules require the Convener to do all the duties of the Chairman and these duties involve the organization of at least two meetings each of which may last even for two days, and heavy correspondence with the University and with the examiner colleagues. Each meeting costs the Convener almost Rs. 15/- per day. The omission of this allowance is very unfortunate to the Convner who is out of pocket to the tune of Rs. 75/-.

5) The sanctioned scale of remuneration provides no fees for setting papers at practicals. It seems unreasonable that question papers on theory should secure Rs. 50/- per each of two hours and 15 three hour papers in practicals should fetch nothing.

6) While calculating fees payable to the examiners for practicals no fees are paid for the absentee candidates although preparations for those candidates are made which will be unfair to the examiners.

7) The reduction in the rate of payment to the laboratory staff made them very ~~unwrixx~~ unwilling workers which put an additional strain on examiners for practicals.

For the above reasons, he requests the University to revise the scales of Travelling and Halting Allowances and remunera-tion suitably before payments are made to examiners).

RESOLVED that examiners be informed that they may claim remuneration according to the Scale obtaining in March 1950. This option is given only to such of the examiners whose invitation-letters were not accompanied by the ~~pxmx~~ pamphlets of revised scales of remuneration.

(11) Letter from Professor R.R. Umarji requesting the University for a grant for equipping a Statistical Laboratory in the Karnatak University.

(Professor R.R. Umarji states that the Principal, Karnatak College, Dharwar, will soon provide space for the Laboratory in the buildings of the Karnatak College where post-graduate students will be able to work. He requests the University for a non-recurring grant of Rs. 3,500/- for the purpose, which is proposed to be spent as under:-

1) Rs. 1,200/- for a Mathematical Typewriter
2) Rs. 500/- for Godrej Storewell cupboards for keeping calculating machines and other manuals.
3) Rs. 1,800/- for chairs, tables and such other equipment as needed in the laboratory.

The equipment bought with these grants would be the property of the University.

He also requests that the University should make an annual grant of Rs. 25/- per student enrolled in Statistics (Special Group of Mathematics A & B of M.A. and M.Sc. for the day to-day expendi-ture).

RESOLVED that the Principal, Karnatak College, Dharwar. be requested to confirm if Professor R.R. Umarji's proposal regarding equipments etc. in Statistical Department is to be treated as the proposal of the Principal, Karnatak College, Dharwar.

(12) Letter from Shri V.M. Kabe, a student of the Jr. B.Sc. Class of the R.P.D. College, Belgaum, requesting the University to condone the deficiency in his attendance forwarded through the Principal, R.P.D. College, Belgaum, with his remarks:-

Attendance in the first term:-	78	Days required:-	65
Attendance in the second term:-	37	Days required:-	65
Total	115	Total days -- Total days required	130
Total deficiency	...	...	15 days
Term deficiency	...	...	28 days

RESOLVED that the consideration of the kx item be postponed.

(13) Letter from Professor A.C. Badami, Professor K.R. Mahishi and Shri G.S. Kulkarni regarding the apparatus purchased for the Zoology Department and the decision of the Syndicate thereon.

(It is contended that the purchase of apparatus costing Rs.15,369/11/6 without calling for tenders and getting proper sanction is unconstitutional and that it will establish a dangerous precedent. They request the University to institute an enquiry into the matter).

RESOLVED that Professor A.C. Badami, Professor K.R. Mahishi and Shri G.S. Kulkarni be informed that in view of the uncertainty and difficulty of obtaining the equipment from abroad, the purchase of the said equipment (the subject matter of the Resolution of the Syndicate of 16th December 1950) was sanctioned by the Syndicate as a special case.

(14) The question of granting a concession of one term to Shri V.M. Kulkarni, a student of the S.T. College, Belgaum, who had requested that in view of the fact that he had attended the first term in 1949-50 almost till the end of it, he be exempted from attending the first term of the course. (According to the decision of the Syndicate on 17th March 1951, the matter was referred to the Principal, S.T. College, Belgaum, for remarks. The principal does not recommend granting the term).

RESOLVED that the request of Shri V.M. Kulkarni be not granted.

(15) Letter from Professor K.R. Mahishi, regarding the delay in getting the budget for the year 1951-1952 duly passed by the relevant University bodies.

(Professor Mahishi points out that a month and half have elapsed after the end of the financial year but the budget for the next year has not been placed before the relevant bodies. He disapproves of the use of the emergency powers of the Vice-Chancellor for regularizing such matters. He requests the University authorities to consider -

(i) the urgency of getting the budget duly passed.
(ii) the need to lay down a specific procedure to avoid a recurrence of such situations).

RESOLVED that as the accounts are not ready for the purpose of financial estimates, the financial estimates be presented to the Senate in the month of August, 1951 at the Annual Meeting and the Vice-Chancellor be requested to enable the routine administration to continue in the exercise of his emergency powers.

Further Resolved that the Registrar and Professor S.S. Malvad be requested to draft a Statute fixing the financial year.

RESOLVED that the consideration of the remaining items of the agenda be postponed to the next meeting to be called on 11th June 1951 at 3-0 P.M.

(16) Application from the Principal, Basaveshvar College, Bagalkot, for the affiliation of the College for teaching Chemistry as Principal and Physics and Botany as Subsidiary subjects upto the B.Sc. Degree course and the Report of the Local Inquiry Committee (copy enclosed) and the following recommenda-tions of the Academic Council thereon:-

"RESOLVED that the recommendations along with the conditions submitted by the Local Inquiry Committee be accepted and forwarded to the Syndicate, viz.,

'Recommended that the Basaveshvar College, Bagalkot be affiliated to the Karnatak University for a period of two years in the first instance for teaching courses of studies in Chemistry as a Principal subject and Botany and Physics as Subsidiary subjects upto the B.Sc. Degree, provided that -

(1) Provision for additional staff, equipment, accommodation, grants etc. is made according to the Committee's recommendations mentioned in the body of the report under the respective heads, before June 1951.

(2) A new gas plant of capacity of not less than 80 burners is installed and fitted up with connecting pipes etc. before the commencement of the next academic ~~xxxxx~~ term.

(3) Additional recurring and non-recurring grants as detailed in the body of the report are sanctioned for the respective departments in 1951 and 1952.

It is suggested that a University Committee should again visit the College in June 1951 and see how far the commitments made by the Principal in regard to the various recommendations made by the Local Inquiry Committee are carried out and how much of the necessary equipment in apparatus and materials is actually received by the College".

(17) Application from the Principal, Kanara College, Kumta, for the affiliation of the College for teaching courses of studies in English, Sanskrit, History, Economics and Kannada upto the B.A. Degree (Special and General) and in Mathematics, Chemistry and Zoology as Principal subjects and Physics and Botany as Subsidiary subjects upto the B.Sc. Degree course, and the Report of the Local Inquiry Committee (copy enclosed), and the following recommendation of the Academic Council thereon:-

"RESOLVED that the recommendations along with the conditions (except sub-clause (i) and (ii) of the (6) of the ~~xxxx~~ conditions of the Report) be accepted and forwarded to the Syndicate, viz.,

'Recommended that the College be affiliated for two years in the first instance for teaching courses of studies in English, Sanskrit, History and Economics and Kannada, upto the B.A. Degree (General and Special) in Geography, Marathi and French upto the I.A. and I.Sc. standard; in Mathematics, Chemistry and Zoology as Principal subjects and Physics and Botany as Subsidiary subjects upto the B.Sc. 2. The management of the Institution be reconstituted as recommended in para 1 of the Report.

3. Immediate arrangement be made for the residence of the Principal on the campus of the college.

4. Proper sanitary arrangements are provided in the Hostels as well as in the College buildings for all students.

5. The temporary shed erected in the quadrangle of the Science building be removed, as the structure is not only unsightly but cuts off valuable light from many of the rooms in the East wing of the building.

He informed that remuneration for setting paper or papers for practicals at Intermediate Science and B.Sc. Examinations was Rs. 50/- and Rs. 100/- respectively. The previous correspondence is put up herewith for kind perusal'. (Copy of the appointment order enclosed).

(28) The following letter from the Director of Public Instruction, Poona, on the subject of order of precedence in Statute 173, and the following draft amendments to the Statute as contemplated by the Poona University:-

Letter from the D.P.I.

"Subject: Statutes regarding the order of precedence.

I have the honour to say that Statute 173 of the First Statutes of your University, pertaining to the precedence in the Senate among members of the Senate, gives no specific position in the table of precedence to the Director of Public Instruction in his official position apart from his position as a member of the Syndicate (of which he or the Deputy Director of Public Instruction, who is a member of the Senate - is an ex-officio member). It, however, seems desirable that the Director of Public Instruction, in view of his official position as Head of the Education Department in the State should be given precede -nce appropriate to this status. Ordinance 129 of the Bombay University places the Director of Public Instruction immediate -ly after 'the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, and the Ex-Vice-Chancellors who are Fellows'. I, therefore, request that you will be so good enough as to move your University to consider the desirability of having the Statute in question modified xx so as to give the Director of Public Instruction an appropriate position in the table of precedence, similar to that accorded to him by the Bombay University".

Draft Amendment (Based on the draft amendment suggested by the Poona University).

In paragraph 4 of Statute 171, after the word "Agric-ulture" in line 2, the following words shall be inserted, namely:-

"the Director of Public Instruction, if he is a member of the Senate".

(29) The following Resolution of the Academic Council regarding the standards of eligibility from 1951 onwards for admission to the different First Year Courses, at its meeting on 15th May 1951:-

Board Examina -tion also with such modifications as will be necessary if the proposed four year Agricultural course is to come into operation from June, 1951". (Copy of the recommenda -tions as accepted by the Academic Council enclosed).

(30) Recommendations of the Library Committee:-

(i) "RESOLVED that it be again recommended to the Syndicate that under the circumstances explained by the Chairman, Shri B.K. Raghavendra Rao be appointed xx as a Clerk in the Library.

K Kale-file-- Pl see 4/7 E 4/7 P. W. D. File No. 2113/48 Serial No. 57876

(Shri B.K. Raghavendra Rao was appointed as a Clerk by the Syndicate on the recommendations of the Library Committee and was to have joined his duties by the 1st of May 1951. As Shri B.K. Raghavendra Rao that the appointment should be deemed as cancelled. On the 25th of May Shri B.K. Raghavendra Rao states that he did not receive the two letters before the 25th as he had given his address as care of his relative at Hubli, who, however, did not send the letters in time. Shri B.K. Raghavendra Rao is now ready to join duties")

(13) The following letter from the Director of Public Instruction, Poona, on the subject of order of precedence in Statute 173, and the following draft amendments to the Statute as con-templated by the Poona University:-

Letter from the D.P.I.
"Subject: Statutes regarding the order of precedence.

I have the honour to say that Statute 173 of the First Statutes of your University, pertaining to the precedence in Senate among members of the Senate, gives no specific position in the table of precedence to the Director of Public -- Instruction in his official position apart from his position as a member of the Syndicate (of which he or the Deputy Director of Public Instruction, who is a member of the Senate, is an ex-officio member). It, however, seems desirable that the ~~Em~~ Director of Public Instruction, in view of his offici-al position as Head of the Education Department in the State should be given precedence appropriate to this status. Ordinance 129 of the Bombay University places the Director of Public Instruction immediately after 'the Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, and the Ex-Vice-Chancellors who are Fellows' I, therefore, request that you will be so good enought as to move your University to consider the desirability of having the Statute in question modified so as to give the Director of Public Instruction an appropriate position in the table of precedence, similar to that accorded to him by the Bombay University".

Draft Amendment: (Based on the draft amendment suggested by the Poona University).

In paragraph 4 of Statute 171, after the word -- 'Agriculture' in line 2, the following words shall be inserted, namely:-

"The Director of Public Instruction, if he is a member of the Senate".

RESOLVED that in the order of precedence in Statute 171, the place of the Director of Public Instruction be immediately below the ex-Vice-Chancellors and above the Deans and that Statute 171 be so amended and submitted to the Senate for acceptance.

Before the Vice-Chancellor proceeded with the business before the House, he made a reference to the irreparable loss that the country had suffered by the deaths of Shri Ramana -- Maharashi, Aravind Maharashi, and Sardar Vallabhabhai Patel. He also referred to the deaths of Shri C.N. Reddy, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, Mysore University, and to Shri M.R. Sakhare, a member of the Senate of the University. At the request of the Vice-Chancellor, the members of the Senate stood in silence for a few moments in respectful memory of the deceased.

The Vice-Chancellor then gave a brief resume of the circumstances that lead to the convening of the special (requi-sition) meeting and called upon Principal G.S. Paramasivayya to move the motion standing in his name.

Principal G.S. Paramasivayya moved and Shri S.S. Basawa-nal seconded, the following proposal:-

> "That, in the opinion of the Senate, the Chhota Mahabaleshwar site suggested by the Karnatak University Committee for the location of the University Buildings is unsuitable and unsatisfactory and that a site centrally situated and closer to the town of Dharwar, be selected for the purpose".

Shri S.S. Basawanal, as the seconder of the motion, reserved his speech.

Shri H.K. Dixit raised a point of order whether in view of paragraph 28 of the Report of the Karnatak University Committee, the present proposal was not out of order.

The Vice-Chancellor thereupon gave a ruling that tl proposal before the House, was in order.

The Vice-Chancellor at this stage explained to the Senate that he had specially invited Shri K.J. Mhatre, the Consulting Engineer of the University, to be present at the meeting, and that members may ask him for information regarding the University site on Chhota Mahabaleshwar.

A number of questions were put by the members and Shri K.J. Mhatre gave his opinion and information on the various points raised by the members.

The debate on the proposal was continued upto 11-15 A.M when the Vice-Chancellor adjourned the meeting to 2-0 P.M. on 27th February 1951.

When the Senate reassembled and resumed discussion on 27th February 1951, at 2-0 P.M. Shri H.F. Kattimani moved and -- Shri S.S. Basawanal seconded -

> 'That the Senate hereby resolves itself into a Committee to consider the proposal'.

15 members having shown their ~~xxxx~~ support to the motion, the Vice-Chancellor accepted the motion for the resolution of the Senate into a Committee.

The motion was then put to vote, but was declared lost for want of 2/3rds majority.

The Vice-Chancellor then called upon Professor S.S. Malwad to move the following amendments standing in his name:-

1. At the end of the proposal beginning with 'That, in the opinion of ..' and ending with 'for the purpose' delete Full Point (.) and add, after referring the matter to the Building Committee appointed by the Syndicate since that Committee has thoroughly examined this question in its various aspects'.

2. Delete the words beginning with 'Centrally situated' (in line 5), and ending with 'for the purpose' and add,

   'be selected at Belgaum as no other site in Dharwar is as suitable and satisfactory as Chhota Mahabaleshwar'.

As Professor S.S. Malwad did not move the amendments nor did any other member move them, they dropped.

The Vice-Chancellor thereupon called on Professor R.C. Badami to move the following amendment standing in his name:-

"In between the words 'Dharwar' and 'be selected for the purpose' add "viz. the area comprising -- of -

1. Dharwar Municipal Office, and all other surroundings area upto Gandhi Chowk".

As Professor R.C. Badami did not move the amendment, nor did any other member move it, it dropped.

The Vice-Chancellor thereupon called on Shri S.S. Malimath to move the amendment standing in his name.

Shri S.S. Malimath moved the following amendment:-

"Delete the words 'a site' in line 5 of the proposal as typed in Notice No. 40 of 1951 dated 8-2-1951, and substitute the following at the same place in the proposal:-

Quarters and Students Hostels and also the buildings and sites now occupied by the All India Radio Station at Dharwar, the Executive Engineer's Offices, the Training College for men, the A.K. Girls' High School along with the playground, the Educational Inspectors' Offices, the Durbar Hall, P.W.D. Buildings, adjoining that Hall and the whole of the Collector's Compound including the offices of the Mamlatdar, Superintendent of Excise and Prohibition and the D.L.B. as this area is".

Shri S.S. Basawanal seconded the amendment.

There was considerable discussion on the original motion and the amendment, in which a large number of members participated.

Shri M.F. Kattimani then moved, 'that the question be now put'.

The Vice-Chancellor having accepted the motion for closure, invited Shri S.S. Malimath, the mover of the amendment, to reply.

The amendment was then put to vote and declared lost by a large majority.

The Vice-Chancellor thereupon called on Shri S.S. Basawanal to speak on the original motion.

Principal G.S. Paramasivayya, the mover of the original motion, was then called upon to reply to the debate.

The original motion was then put to vote and was declared lost on a show of hands. (14 voting for and 23 against the motion).

KARNATAK UNIVERSITY.

Annual Report of the University.

Upto June, 1951.

I Formation of the Karnatak University- A brief history.

For centuries, the Kannada people had lost their integrated cultural life. With the general quickening of the national consciousness towards the end of the 19th century, the Kannada people naturally also felt the urge to develop their own independent culture. A renaissance movement set in, which took, among other things, the form of a demand for higher educational institutions in Karnatak. As a result, the Karnatak College was established in ~~1947~~ 1917. But the public of Karnatak was not satisfied just with the establishment of a college. The principle underlying the establishment of regional Universities had already been accepted by the Setalwad Committee and the Sadler Commissions. The first Karnatak University Conference was convened in Bellary in 1926 and a Karnatak University Association was formed with the object of bringing into existence a separate University for the Kannada areas. The Karnatak University Conference was convened in Belgaum in 1942 and was followed by the formation of another Karnatak -- University Association. The second conference was convened in Dharwar in 1943, when prominent Kannada educationists outlined a programme of work for the early establishment of the Karnatak University. This Association launched a campaign for the establishment of a Karnatak University, issued a questionaire and drafted a scheme on the basis of the replies received. The 28th of September, 1946 was observed as the Karnatak University Day all over the region, and a deputation waited upon the Hon'ble Premier and Minister of Education, with a request that immediate steps be taken by the Government to establish a University for the Karnatak.

The Karnatak University Committee was appointed on 17th April, 1947, under the distinguished Chairmanship of Shri N.S. Lokur. The function of the University was according to the Committee, to integrate the educational and cultural life of the Bombay Karnatak, to act as a magnetic centre for the scattered fragments of the Kannada territory and to pave the way for the ultimate unification of the Karnatak Province. The Committee's report was submitted to the Government in May, 1948. It srecommendations were incorporated in a Bill, which was passed by the Legislature and went on the Statute Book in April, 1949. The first Vice-Chancellor and Registrar were appointed by the Government towards the end of July, 1949. The Karnatak University was incorporated on the 1st of March, 1950.

II. The University office was set up in August 1949, in a room kindly loaned to it by the Curator of Libraries in the Town Hall, Bombay, and was shifted to the Training College for Men, Dharwar, in October of the same year.

Expansion of the University Office and additional accommodation

During the period under report, the University authori-ties succeeded in securing 4 more rooms from the Training College Building, in addition to the three halls already occupied. With this additional accommodation, some space could be spared for the Library.

As the various authorities of the University started functioning, the total volume of work in the administrative branch increased proportionately. The Assistant Registrar was appointed in October, 1950 and the Accountant in November of the same year. Five more clerks were appointed during this period. The appointments of the Librarian and the Assistant Librarian were made in April, 1951.

III. FINANCE.

The Government of Bombay sanctioned a recurring grant of Rs. 3,50,000/- and a non-recurring grant of Rs. 4,00,000/- -- for buildings, which were received during the year ended 31st March, 1951. The actuals of the year 1949-50 revealed a surplus cash balance of Rs. 1,43,392/-, while the year 1950-51 closed with a cash balance of Rs. 2,10,000/- exclusive of the Rs. 4,00,000/- held under Capital Account for Buildings. This surplus is mainly due to the fact that the post-graduate scheme did not materialise during the year as originally planned, and also because there was a saving of about a lakh of rupees from the funds earmarked for the Library.

The estimates of Income for the year 1951-52 are based on the assumption that a recurring grant of Rs. 3,50,000/- will be made by Government as last year. The Government have intimated the sanction of an Advance Grant to the University of Rs. 90,000/- pending decision on the question of Grants to be paid to the Universities in the State for the current year.

IV. BUILDINGS.

The University has decided to construct its buildings on Chhota Mahabaleshwar, a hillock near the city of Dharwar. The plans are ready for the entire scheme of buildings and equipment which are estimated to cost nearly Rs. 85 lakhs. It is proposed to construct a few buildings costing Rs. 10 lakhs within the next two years. The Foundation-stone of the administrative building was laid by the President of the Indian Republic, Dr. Babu Rajendra Prasad on Chhota Mahabaleshwar on 30th March, 1951. The preliminary arrangements are being made and it is expected that the building operations will soon commence.

V. THE NEW POST-GRADUATE SCHEME.

The question of starting the University Post-graduate -- Departments was taken up. As many as 23 posts were advertised and candidates from all parts of India were interviewed. Ultimately, however, the University decided to make a modest beginning with only 4 Departments, viz. Kannada, English, Statistics and Geology, and accordingly appointed 2 Professors and 3 Readers for all these Departments. The appointments are being made and the University Teaching staff is expected to begin work by the commencement of the second term. The University has, meanwhile, launched a comprehensive scheme for co-ordinating and supplementing the existing facilities for post-graduate instruction already available in the various affiliated colleges. The scheme consists in arranging on behalf of the University, a number of lectures in each subject by recognised Teachers. An honorarium of Rs. 15/- is to be paid for each lecture. While drawing up the scheme, an effort has been made towards the ultimate aim of the centralization of post-graduate instruction, which will have the advantage of avoiding duplication of work and making the best instruction in a subject available to all the students of the University. The scheme has suggested a number of checks to ensure the quality of instruction that is made available under the scheme. This arrangement is only temporary, but will have to continue until the University is able to start and function its own post-graduate Departments.

VI The Nee Eligibility Standards for admission to the First Year courses.

A Committee was appointed in the month of March, 1950 to revise the eligibility standards for the various University courses. It submitted a comprehensive report in August, 1950. The report was accepted by the various authorities of the University and, accordingly, Statute 176 was amended to incorporate the recommendations of the Committee as modified by the various University authorities. In revising the eligibility standards, an attempt has been xx made to minimise the chances of higher education being denied to students passing the S.S.C. Examination, and at the same time to ensure that a type of education is given to the students which is suited to their special talents. (Statute 176 as amended is appended). (Appendix A).

The University Library has today nearly 15 thousand volumes. Out of this, a valuable collection of 3 thousand books was donated by the Chief of Mudhol. Till April, 1951, all the Library work had to be done by the Library Committee assisted by a few clerks. Since then, the University has appointed a Librarian and an Assistant Librarian. The University has subscribed to as many as 44 journals in Kannada, English and Marathi. The work of cataloguing is in progress and it is expected that it will soon be possible to throw the Library open to Postgraduate students and the public.

XIII. ASSAM RELIEF FUND.

Inspite of the pressure of urgent administrative work, the University responded to the call of the Prime Minister of India, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, to help the people of Assam who had -- suffered heavy losses on account of earthquakes during August 1950. The Vice-Chancellor issued an appeal to the students and staffs of the various schools and colleges in the University area to contribute generously to the Assam Relief Fund. A Committee was appointed for the purpose. Prof. S.P. Walvekar of the Karnatak College kindly consented to act as the Secretary of the Committee. The 3rd of October 1950 was observed as the 'Karnatak University Assam Relief Fund Day'. An amount of -- Rs. 18,900/- was thus collected and sent to the Prime Minister for the redress of our unfortunate brethren of Assam. Were it not for the sincere efforts of the Committee, particularly of its Secretary, Professor Walvekar and the generous co-operation from the students and staffs of the various Colleges, such a substantial amount could not have been collected for the Assam Relief Fund.

XIV. VISITS OF IMPORTANT PERSONAGES.

During the year under report, important personages such as the Hon'ble Dr. B.V. Keskar, Deputy Minister, External Affairs, Government of India, the Hon'ble Shri M.D. Gilder, Minister for Public Health, Government of Bombay, the Hon'ble Shri Morarjibhai Desai, Minister for Home and Revenue, Government of Bombay, -- Shri R.M. Deshmukh and Shri Shilpi Siddhalinga Swamiji of Mysore visited the University.

XV. CONVOCATION.

The first Annual Convocation for conferring degrees was held on 17th October, 1950, when degrees were conferred on the University's first batch of one hundred and thirty five graduates. The Convocation address was delivered by our -- Chancellor, Sir Raja Maharaj Singh, Governor of Bombay. The Convocation Hall was packed to capacity and the atmosphere was such as to fit the solemn occasion.

XVI. NATIONAL CADET CORPS.

The Senior Division, National Cadet Corps in the University Area has its Headquarters at the Karnatak College, Dharwar, and ours is the best battalion in the Bombay State. It is supervised by a regular Army Officer, Major Ukidve, assisted by fifteen -- N.C.C. Officers and by regular army JCOs and NCOs. The total strength of the battalion is 470 cadets, divided into A, B, and C Companies. Of these, 158 are from the Karnatak College, 100 from the College of Agriculture, 50 from the K.E. Board's Arts and Science College, 108 from the Lingaraj College and 54 from the R.P.D. College. The cadets are trained in Drill, the Rifle, L.M.G. submachine gun, 2" and 3" mortars, grenade and such other infantry weapons. They have a 15 days' camp every year when all the sub-units live and parade together. They may also appear for the 'B' and 'C' Certificate Examinations, which qualify them for a regular commission if they are under 24 years of age and have passed their degree examinations. The 'B' and 'C' Certificates entitle the cadets to certain exemptions at the University -- Examinations while membership of the N.C.C. gives them preference over other candidates at the time of admission to professional colleges.

The Junior Division caters to the Senior Division by -- preparing cadets at school, and the Senior Division prepares prospective candidates to the Army. The 5th Bombay Battalion, N.C.C., which is the only Senior Division unit in the University Area, has been doing well. One of the highlights of its activities during this year was the Guard of Honour presented by the cadets to His Excellency Sir Raja Maharaj Singh, Chancellor of the -- University on 17th October 1950 at the First Annual Convocation of the Karnatak University.

XVII. OUR IMMEDIATE NEEDS.

One of the long felt needs of the University is that of additional accommodation. The Training College Building, which is likely to be soon left at the disposal of the University, has to be utilised for three purposes - the University Office, the Library and post-graduate lectures. The space is not adequate for the growing activities of the University. For want of suitable halls, the meetings of the Senate and Convocation are required to be held outside the Training College Building. The University has not been fortunate enough to get any ready-made buildings from the Government as was the case with the Poona University. It will be possible to realise the dreams of our building plans with the help of Government and munificent donations from the public. It is hoped that this will come in abundant measure in the days to come.

KARNATAK UNIVERSITY.

BUDGET NOTES. (1951-52).

General Remarks.

1) The financial year of the University is from the 1st of April to the 31st of March. As the budget for 1951-52 could not be prepared before the close of the financial year 1950-51, it has been thought advisable to insert a column showing the actuals for the first three months (from the 1st of April to 30th June) for the information of the members of the Senate. 1951.

2) The Budget is presented to the Senate in two parts, viz. (1) Income, (2) Expenditure, and in 6 columns as detailed below:-

1) Heads of Income and Expenditure.
2) Actuals for 1949-50.
3) Estimates for 1950-51.
4) Actuals for 1950-51.
5) Actuals for April/June of 1951
6) Estimates for 1951-52.

3) Items on Capital Account are shown separately under -- 'Capital Account', page 9.

4) A summary of Income and Expenditure appears at the bottom of page 2 in the Income side.

5) Details regarding Establishment Charges for all Departments are shown in the Establishment Schedule as an Appendix to the Budget.

6) The Budget estimates show a deficit of Rs. 49,390/-.

INCOME.

(1) Government Grants.

(A) Recurring. A recurring grant of Rs. 3,50,000/- was sanctioned for the year 1950-51 and the full amount was received during the year 1950-51. It is expected that the Government will make a similar grant for the current year.

(B) Government Contribution towards Dearness Allowance.

This is calculated on the basis of 1/3 the actual amount paid by the University as Dearness Allowance to the staff. The figure of estimates for 1951-52 ought to be Rs. 3,100/- instead of Rs. 8,700/- as entered in the estimates.

In the column 1950-51 actuals, no dearness allowance contribution by the Government has been shown as the amount of Rs. 699/- which is 1/3 of the Dearness Allowance paid by the University during the year 1949-50 has not still been received from the Government. The amount of Rs. 11,650/- in the column of estimates for 1950-51 was based on a misunderstanding that the Government would pay 1/3 -- Deanress Allowance during the same year (1950-51). Besides the appointment of teaching staff in the post-graduate departments of the University was not made before the close of the year.

(2) Examination Fees: The actuals of the previous year are taken as a fair index of the total amount expected to be received during the Budget year. In the case of the Agricultural Examinations there is a noticeable decrease in the number of candidates and in the case of the Engineering Examinations there should be an increase in the number of candidates with the addition of the Second Year Course. It may be noticed that the actuals for the year 1950-51 include nearly all the fees received for examinations held in the first -- half of 1951.

(3) Post-graduate Departments: No amount has been shown against tuition fees as the colleges enrolling the students are entitled to receive the same.

(4) Other Fees: The increase in the total amount estimated for the year 1951-52 is due to the increase in the number of students -- seeking admission to the various colleges.

(5) Income from Publications:

(a) Sales of application forms for the various posts in the Post-graduate Departments and posts in the Office brought in a sum of Rs. 1,380/- during the year 1950-51 which is not - likely to continue in the year 1951-52.

((c)) The Hand-book of the University is expected to be ready -- printed before 1952 March and /sale of copies may yield about /the a thousand rupees.

(6) Miscellaneous:

Interest on University Funds.

The estimates of Interest for the year 1951-52 pertain to interest that will be earned on the cash balances held in -- Current Accounts.

(8) Building Grant from Government:

A sum of Rs. 4,00,000/- was received from Government in the last week of March 1951. The Syndicate hopes to get a -- similar grant for 1951-52, Accounts of Building Grants are - separately shown under Capital Account on page 9.

Cash Balances: The actuals of the year 1950-51 leave a closing balance of Rs. 3,53,414/- on Revenue Account as detailed below:-

Balance on 1-4-1951.	Rs. 7,61,636/-
Less amount of building grant received in March 1951.	Rs. 4,00,000/-
	Rs. 3,61,636/-
Less Endowment Account.	Rs. 8,222/-
Balance on Revenue Account: ..	Rs. 3,53,414/-

This surplus cash balance is mainly due to the -- following reasons:-

1) The appointment of Teachers in the Post-graduate -- Departments was not completed according to the time-schedule.

2) The full amount earmarked for the Library was not spent. This surplus has now been allotted as shown below:-

Rs. 1,50,000/-	Special Grants to Post-graduate Depts.
Rs. 1,00,000/-	Special Grants to Library Department.
Rs. 1,03,414/-	Reserve Fund.
Total: .. Rs. 3,53,414/-

EXPENDITURE.

(I) Post-graduate Instruction:

It is intended to appoint 6 Professors and 3 Readers.

It is proposed to invite recognized teachers for courses of lectures at Dharwar and Belgaum and pay them travelling and -- halting allowances.

The post-graduate instruction in branches of science will require a certain amount of expenditure on consumable -- materials in the laboratories and the practicals.

The equipment already existing at the Karnatak College, Dharwar, and the Lingaraj College, Belgaum, may require to be supplemented for post-graduate purposes. In addition to the -- amount of Rs. 10,000/- shown in the estimates, an amount of -- Rs. 1,50,000/- has been set apart from the surplus balance as on 31st March 1951.

Office Staff.

A lump sum provision is made in the budget year to meet the cost of extra staff contemplated.

The actuals for the year 1950-51 show a considerable decrease from the estimated figures. This is due to the appointments being made very late in the year.

The four Departments shown as D, E, F and G proposed to be established during the current year will require some -- administrative staff.

(III) Examinations:

The estimates for 1951-52 provide for a general increase under Remuneration as well as under Travelling Allowance, -- Printing Charges, Miscellaneous Expenses etc. This has been found necessary on account of the increase in the number of students for the various examinations, the increase in railway fares and the increase in the cost of printing and of other supplies.

(IV) Travelling Allowance.

Senate, Syndicate etc.

The estimates for the Budget year are based on the numbers of meetings of the various Authorities of the University during the year 1951-52 as detailed below:-

Senate.	3.
Syndicate.	16.
Academic Council.	4.

.. 4 ..

4) Faculties:-

Arts, Science, Law, Engineering & Agriculture	2 each.
5) Boards of Studies.	2 each.

The increase in the Railway Fare and in the rate of Halting Allowance recently sanctioned have been taken into consideration.

Travelling Allowance to the Vice-Chancellor.

This has been specially provided for to meet T.A. and H.A. required to be paid by the University for travelling expected to be undertaken by the Vice-Chancellor on University business.

V. Library Books.

A sum of Rs. 69,589/- was spent on books during the year ending March, 1951, against Rs. 1,75,000/-(Non-recurring) provided. Rs. 25,000/- have been provided as Recurring Expenditure on books and periodicals for the Budget year.

Wel-Come Speech by the Vice-Chancellor, Shri. C. C. Hulkoti, on the occasion of the visit of His Highness The Maharaja of Mysore, at the 2nd Annual Convocation of the Karnatak University on 9th September, 1951

14.9

Wel-come Speech by the Vice-Chancellor, Shri. C. C. Hulkoti, on the occasion of the visit of His Highness The Maharaja of Mysore, at the 2nd Annual Convocation of the Karnatak University on 9th September, 1951.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR HIGHNESS,

IT is an exceedingly rare privilege for me to welcome Your Highness here on the occasion of the Second Annual Convocation of the Karnatak University. The significance of Your Highness's visit to our University goes far beyond the routine purpose of a ceremonial function. The Royal House of Mysore has, during the ages past, sustained with conspicuous success all that we to-day understand by Karnatak Culture. I am, therefore, grateful to Your Highness for your gracious consent to address the Convocation and the graduates on this occasion and to the Government of Mysore who have so readily pleaded with you on our behalf.

Your Highness is, no doubt, aware that the idea of a University for the Karnatak parts of the Bombay State has a history dating back to a quarter of a century ago. A movement for the establishment of a University in this region was started as far back as 1926, when the Karnatak University Association was constituted with the object of bringing into existence a separate University for Karnatak. After nearly twentyone years of strenuous effort the Government of Bombay could be persuaded to appoint a Committee of educationists and other experts in April, 1947 to explore the idea comprehensively and submit a report; the recommendations of this Committee were embodied in a Bill which went on the Statute Book in April, 1949 and the Karnatak University was incorporated on the 1st March, 1950. Your Highness will excuse my quoting, in this context, a few lines from this Report. 'It would be the function of the Karnatak University', says the Report, 'to integrate the educational and cultural life of the Bombay Karnatak in the first instance, to act as a magnetic centre for all the scattered fragments of the Karnatak territory, and to pave the way for the ultimate unification of the Karnatak Province'. These words, I have no doubt, express very aptly the sentiments of the people and define in clear terms their long-cherished ideal of a United Karnatak.

It was obviously with this vision inspiring all their labours that the Committee proceeded to co-opt, with the permission of the Bombay Government, members from South Kanara, Bellary and Coorg, and record valuable evidence in Bangalore, Mysore and other centres. The disturbed political conditions in Hyderabad unfortunately deterred them from sounding popular opinion in the Kannada parts of that State.

The jurisdiction of the Karnatak University is confined at present to the four districts of Dharwar, Belgaum, Bijapur and North Kanara. They have a total area of 20,000 square miles and a population of nearly four millions. The Universsty has, affiliated to it, seven Arts and Science Colleges, one College of Agriculture, one Secondary Training College, one College of Engineering teaching upto the Second Year's course, one College of Commerce, one Law College and the Kannada Research Institute. The number of students receiving instruction in the various affiliated Colleges is over forty-five hundred. The number of candidates appearing for the various examinations rose from 1,809 in 1950, to 2,945 in 1951. Within a short period, the library has acquired about fifteen thousand volumes in various subjects. The Chief of Mudhol has donated a valuable collection of 3,000 volumes. We subscribe to as many as 44 journals in Kannada, English and Marathi.

The Karnatak University fared very creditably in its first venture into the field of sports, standing fifth among the twenty-one Universities that participated in the Inter-University Sports Tournament held at Allahabad in December, 1950.

Ever since its inception, the University has been giving serious thought to the problem of post-graduate instruction, the entire responsibility for which is to be its distinctive feature. We started with a fairly comprehensive scheme of opening University Departments in a variety of subjects and the appointment of a large number of University Teachers. On account of the general paucity of trained and experienced personnel everywhere and also on account of our limited resources, we could make a beginning with only four Departments-Kannada, English, Statistics and Geology. The appointments have been made and the Departments are expected to start functioning by the beginning of the second term. In the meanwhile an interim scheme has been launched for co-ordinating and supplementing the existing facilities for post-graduate instruction in the affiliated Colleges. It has been framed with a view to working up towards the ultimate aim Address delivered by His Highness Maharaja Sri Jaya Chamaraja Wadiyar Bahadur, G.C.B., G.C.S.I., Maharaja of Mysore, at the Convocation of the Karnatak University, Dharwar.

Sunday, 9th September 1951

MR. VICE-CHANCELLOR, GRADUATES OF THE YEAR, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I DEEPLY appreciate the high honour you have conferred upon me by asking me to deliver this Convocation Address. I shall try to discharge the duties of the office in a manner worthy of this occasion.

As Chancellor of the University of Mysore, I am very happy to have the opportunity of visiting a sister University which is also a next-door neighbour. Neighbourhood is the first step towards understanding, and neighbourly friendship is both nucleus and model for the fellowship of nations and the brotherhood of man. But geographical contiguity, though important, is the least of the ties that bind

MR. VICE-CHANCELLOR, GRADUATES OF THE YEAR, LADIES AND GENTLEMEN:

I DEEPLY appreciate the high honour you have conferred upon me by asking me to deliver this Convocation Address. I shall try to discharge the duties of the office in a manner worthy of this occasion.

As Chancellor of the University of Mysore, I am very happy to have the opportunity of visiting a sister University which is also a next-door neighbour. Neighbourhood is the first step towards understanding, and neighbourly friendship is both nucleus and model for the fellowship of nations and the brotherhood of man. But geographical contiguity, though important, is the least of the ties that bind Mysore and Karnatak. We are common heirs to a great heritage, and now close partners in the sovereign democratic republic of free India. We share equally in the pride of past history and in the hopes and anxieties of the present and the future.

Apart from ties of religion, language, culture and history, our two Universities are now bound by common concern in the problems of educational enterprise during troubled and critical times. The establishment of the Karnatak University is an event of great moment not only to all Kannadigas but to the whole world of Indian education.

Graduates of the year, I bring you special greetings from my own University, the University of Mysore. That institution—where, I am proud to say, I received my own education—was launched on its career some thirty-five years ago. In the record of its orderly progress, your own young University may find some lessons of value. Mysore, too, will surely gain by close contact with the Karnatak University. I look forward with confidence to many years of fruitful exchange and co-operation between our two sister institutions.

The educational system of our country has been under attack for several decades. Dissatisfaction has been expressed about the quality as well as content of the education offered in all stages from the primary to the university. There is no proper balance between educational facilities and educational needs in India. The country is economically backward because it is educationally poorly equipped; it is educationally backward because it is too poor to afford the apparatus and appurtenances of modern education. It is a vicious circle which must be broken at more than one place. Educational facilities are meagre in the extreme, but even such education as we manage to impart in schools and colleges leaves much to be desired. The University Education Commission has made a thorough-going survey of our educational problem at the highest level and has furnished us with a blue-print on which we can confidently set to work. In furtherance of their suggestions the Planning Commission has made a provision for educational development in their Five-Year Plan. The total proposed expenditure on education amounts to Rs. 123 crores (of which the States contribute Rs. 91 crores and the Centre Rs. 32 crores).

The Planning Commission is well aware that the provision is not likely to meet the educational needs of the country in an adequate measure. But they hope that by strengthening the economic basis of society an increasing proportion of resources will be applied to the development of education and social services. They rightly stress that it is the immediate responsibility of all those who are concerned with education to bring to bear on the existing organization and methods of education all the new knowledge and experience that has been gained here and abroad. Thereby, they believe, the most effective use can be made of that part of the nation's resources which can be made available for education. "Education", they say, "has a vital role to fulfil both in the development of the nation and the development of the individual. It has to train the senses, develop the intellect, humanize the emotions and equip the individual for effieient living so as to ensure an integrated growth of his personality. There is also the larger question of re-orientating the system of education so that the people are able to participate effectively in building up a social order which it is the object of national planning to evolve." The educational targets have been wisely fixed by the Planning Commission and their proposals are informed with the spirit of modern trends in education and inspired by the needs of a new and growing nation that has only recently come into its own.

That the purpose of all education is to present a coherent picture of the universe and an integrated way of life was admitted by our ancients. They spoke of a samanvaya of the different items of knowledge, as life is one in all its varied manifestations revealing a harmony of diverse patterns. Our ancient teachers combined wisdom with knowledge or, to use the words of the Upanishad, we should be both knowers of texts (mantravit) and knowers of self (atmavit). It would be very strange indeed if in the act of borrowing the material apparatus of the West we neglected our own philosophy, art and literature. Apart from the high-grade specialist, intelligent living for all would include a knowledge of the general principles of science and technology, Social Studies and Humanities such as literature, fine arts, ethics, philosophy and religion. Most of what is taught in colleges leaves no deposit in the mind or on character, since studies are unrelated to the art of life and the business of living. Learning is not stuffing the mind with facts. To quote from Yaska's Nirukta, "The person who is able only to recite the Veda but does not understand its meaning is like a mere bearer of a load. For the words that are simply memorised are merely sound when uttered without a meaning, just as wood, be it never so dry, will not burn if it is not put into fire." Education, according to the Indian tradition, is not only a means to earning a living, it is initiation into the life of the spirit, a training of human souls in the pursuit of truth and practice of virtue.

A serious charge against the system of education established by the British was that it was un-Indian in character, that it neglected India's heritage, that it created a conflict in India's soul and that it did not give the people of the country an appreciation of their own culture. It almost produced an intellectual elite without roots in the country. India's independence has given us a great opportunity to revive and resuscitate what was great and noble in our culture and civilization. What holds a society together and what gives individuals that compose the society balance and perspective, strength and stability is the possession of culture. We have to go back to the old moorings, to the grand old fortifying classics and epics that sustained the weight of Indian life in the past. In the professional colleges we serve too narrow a range of expert knowledge and special disciplines while in the liberal colleges there is either too much of arts without the vivifying and invigorating influence of science or we have too much of science without the humanistic and cultural ideals.

It is the proper function of the Indian university to endow the youth that flock to it in ever increasing numbers with a central core of values. Culture and philosophy, religion and aesthetics serve as the binding cement, the cohesive force that make of people more than a mere aggregate of individuals. Even the students in specialized courses need a more abundant personal life, a freer social order and a more spiritual existence. At no time in the history of India is the need to stress our fundamental unity greater than at present when we find, in the wake of independence, a strong movement for regionalism, provincialism, linguism which may be at the cost of our objective of one country, one people, one nation and one culture. The true lesson of Indian history, despite its vicissitudes, is this : it is the life of the spirit that has shaped and unified our collective existence and has been the real bond of oneness among the Indian people. To quote from the Report of the University Education Commission, "After centuries of stress and conflict India has gradually evolved a common culture, a collective consciousness which embraces wide varieties of temperament, tradition, ways of thought and belief. Our people belong to different provinces, speak their own languages, preserve their own habits and customs. Despite all these there is a fundamental unity which binds people together as members of our society with the same cultural loyalties". It is the duty of the University in national India to conserve and develop this fundamental unity of India. The light of India's culture has never failed though at times it became a faint flicker. Let us make of it an illuminating flame and to this end the universities should cultivate its past greatness and glory. To know our country, Tagore has advised us, we must travel to that age when she realised her soul and thus transcended physical boundaries and social barriers. The students in the remote days of Taxila and Nalanda had a broad basis which gave them a liberal rather than a special education : the curriculum included the Vedas and the Upanishads, systems of logic, philosophy and all the eighteen arts which comprised medicine and surgery, astronomy and astrology, archery and agriculture and even snake charming.

A crisis in European and American universities, similar to our own, has set educationists thinking furiously about reform and replanning. The crisis in the West no less than in the East reflects the conflicts the world and the prevailing sense of insecurity and instability. The cause of the malady lies not in atom-bomb or bacteriological warfare but in subsidence of the moral, spiritual and cultural foundations of modern society. "Mores", ways of life, social obligations and family bonds are bound up with some accepted view of the nature of man and of the universe, but this common framework has largely broken down, due to the acids of modern science. We have to restore the foundations of belief, custom and sentiment on scientific lines and reconstruct a new world picture, a new way of life to replace that which is in ruins over large parts of the world. Mentally and spiritually the nations are sick and impoverished, and the universities have to supply what is lacking.

We are living in an age of exceptional crisis. For the history of civilization, the years round 1950 are critical in a degree to which the years round 1850 or 1900 were not. Power has been doubled and quadrupled; the technique of manipulating man has been developed quite out of proportion to any growth in real understanding and wisdom. The beliefs which govern man are in flux and the old social convictions and conventions concerning good and evil are broken up. Society seems to have lost direction. It is a challenge to our universities and it is their duty to repair and reconstruct the whole complex of beliefs, habits and sentiments more in conformity with the demands of a mechanical civilization. The contrast between the need of the time and present academic inhibitions creates what Sir Walter Moberly has pictured as the crisis in the university. He urges that there are a few basic values for which irrespective of internal differences, the university as a whole must stand. Without some such final frame of reference no coherent university policy is possible. These basic values are academic: a passion for truth, thoroughness in pursuing it wherever it may lead, a delicate precision in analysis, a judicial temper, a willingness to learn from all quarters, freedom of utterance, recognition of moral principles and obligations, an ingrained respect for law and order and an unshakable conviction that it is people that matter and not things. The university has to meet the demands of both a liberal and an occupational education. It is for the university to combine these aims, professional and cultural, scientific and philosophic, technical and spiritual, for university education is both a preparation for life and a preparation for livelihood.

We in India have philosophy ingrained in our very being. Our philosophy and our systems of philosophy have been the wonder of the civilized world. And yet looking around our petty squabbles, political ill-temper, internecine quarrels, provincial jealousies and language imperialisms, we greatly doubt whether philosophy rules our practical codes of conduct and governs our outlook on life and its perplexities. Philosophy is almost another term for tolerance. The habit of mind that our philosophy and our education which is supposed to be inspired by our philosophy should be impartiality, detachment, serenity and wisdom. The most important function of philosophy and the discipline associated with it is the teaching of tolerance. As Voltaire said, "Toleration, in fine, had never led to civil war, while intolerance has covered the earth with carnage." If the study of philosophy can stimulate impartiality and understanding sympathy and it can inhibit passion, prejudice and intolerance, then it should be a discipline of incalculable value in the hands of our educators and university dons. Plato observed over two thousand five hundred years ago, " It seems that a man's character will always be according to his education, let him apply himself afterwards to what he will."

II

That education requires a concept of man and society is obvious, since the end of education is the pursuit of perfection. Man is compounded of the rational, the emotional and the physico-biological elements. The development of these potentialities depends upon the experience of the developing organism. We should strive for the most complex unfolding of his capacities and the means that we employ for perfecting him are nature, culture and education. Nature is what is given, in whose creation man has had little or no part: it consists of those things which come into existence, not as the result of man's thought and volition, but by the operation of fortes beyond his control and contrivance. Culture is of man's own devising: it comprises all things which man, a natural being, creates out of nature such as art, philosophy, literature, science and the entire technical apparatus of material existence. Education, though in a wider sense is a product of culture itself, is in its more restricted sense, a rational, purposeful effort to develop the mind, to guide the instincts, to refine the sentiments, and to transmit and transform the social heritage. Education is the learning process, "the process of learning how to learn," and to absorb the methods and facts of science and the humanities.

There is much concern about the lack of an integrating factor in contemporary life. The present disorder contrasts sharply with the stable and closely knit societies of earlier times. Ancient India, the City States of Greece and the Middle Ages, for example, were characterized by a unified and harmonious social life based upon a set of guiding principles such as the teaching of the Vedas and Upanishads, the metaphysics of the Greeks and the theology of Thomas Aquinas. To-day there is a yearning and a search for greater social stability and for a more secure personal life. One manifestation of the unrest and the ferment is a re-consideration of the purposes of higher education and a re-examination of the nature and purposes of university courses and curricula. There is a revival of interest in the study of humanities and human values. Even scientists are shedding some of their pre-occupations with the material side of nature and are urging for a rightful place for the humane studies side by side with scientific disciplines. Whitehead writes, "The true task of education is to reconcile the sense of pattern and direction deriving from heritage with the sense of experiment and innovation deriving from science that they may exist fruitfully together."

A "general education" movement is now sweeping the educational scene in the West, particularly in the United States. It has called into question many conventional forms of college and university education. It has even caused some major modifications in professional education.

General education is that which prepares the young people for the common life of scientific age and social democracy. It not only stresses the understanding of the main concepts and broad techniques of natural and biological sciences but also the appreciation of that fund of culture and knowledge, art and literature, language and thought which characterize and give stability and meaning to our social organization. It takes account of the great scientific generalizations, spiritual truths, aesthetic conceptions, moral and cultural values, so necessary for the modern man to understand himself and the world in which he has to live. It is the task of general education to train the individual for a full and satisfying life as a member of a family, as a citizen, as a worker, as a voter, as a democrat and above all as an integrated human being.

We have a right to ask of our educational system these questions : Does it cultivate habits of straight thinking and effective writing; does it develop the faculty of critical appreciation and of the capacity for intelligent workmanship; does it fit the student to deal with the moral problems that have perplexed man throughout ages to the end that he may meet them in his own life with a sense of the just, the proper and the salutary ; does it sharpen his aesthetic awareness so that he may appreciate the great works of art and of nature and thus enrich his personality ; does it give him the general principles and factual basis of those natural sciences which have created the modern age in which he has to live with a purpose and a meaning? "General education" sets out to provide satisfactory answers to these questions.

General education is not concerned with special skills and professions and with the investigations and researches at the frontiers of knowledge. These have their place in every university, but they should not prevent the colleges from discharging their first responsibility of teaching the multitudinous young how to live and how to conduct the affairs of life with which they are directly concerned. Along with the rapid spread of knowledge there should be a rapid spread of wisdom and culture which will enable us to make the best use of that knowledge. The making of men is much more important than the making of subject matter. Montaigue said it long ago : "The object of education is to make, not a scholar, but a man." Scholarship, as it is popularly understood, is easy to attain but not the realization of the best that is potential within us. Specialization, scientific advance, methodology, knowledge for its own sake are certainly important, but considering the large numbers of students that flock to our universities, fit not for special but for general education, it was wrong to have shifted the emphasis from students to subject matter. Our university curricula are planned to serve the interests of those few who devote their entire life to the exploration of a small aspect of a single subject and to the acquisition of more and more knowledge about less and less.

Educators in the professional and technical institutes are also coming to realize the need for liberal and general education even for the so-called specialists. In U.S.A. many of the strongest advocates of broader learning are from the professions of engineering, medicine and technology. They share a universal desire for a liberal training. There is a tendency in American universities to correct the excessive specialism, vocationalism and compartmentalisation of courses of study. They are making a vigorous effort to integrate the subject matter of related disciplines. Time was when the borders between departments of science and those between science and arts were as carefully guarded as the frontiers of hostile powers. It is now discovered that these intellectual boundaries are merely barriers to progress and all that comes of it is barren intellectual isolationism. We now proceed on a basis of the inter-relationships of the various branches of learning. The philosophy of "knowledge for its own sake" has its uses, but education is to be conceived in terms of what the student is going to be once the formal process of learning is over. Education really comprises all his attitudes, abilities, aptitudes and activities; not merely a mastery of a branch of knowledge and the acquisition of a particular skill in a particular subject. The famous Harvard Report, General Education in a Free Society, sets forth the main objectives of university training—the ability to think, to communicate, to make valid judgments and to evaluate moral situations. These objectives are directly related to the behaviour of students as citizens and human beings.

We have to adopt our educational institutions to the emergent needs of contemporary society. There is already an energetic ferment at work insisting that our graduate courses shall be orientated towards the needs of the New India and the New world we are building. There is a divorce now between the sphere of learning and the sphere of the home and the community, between the universe of ideas and the market for employment. Let us replan our curriculum and procedure so that we assist the student in seeing the relationship between learning and life, in using his knowledge and skills in daily living and in taking a vital interest in the noble task of remaking himself and his country. It is not such a revolutionary thought after all, for Milton defined the ideal of an educated man as one who is fitted "to perform justly, skilfully and magnanimously all the offices, both public and private, of peace and war", in fact the ideal of the man educated for the life, the labours, the problems and the uncertainties of the modern age. Einstein has given a modern expression and scientific confirmation of the same idea. Addressing the Convocation of the University of New York in 1937, he said, " The development of general ability for independent thinking and judgment shall always be placed foremost, not the acquisition of special skills and special knowledge. If a person masters the fundamentals and has learned to think and work independently, he will surely find his way, and besides he will be better able to adapt himself to progress and change than the person whose training principally consists in the acquiring of detailed knowledge ".

General education as distinguished from specialized training exclusively in Arts or Science is the need of the hour in India. Following Ortega Y Gasset, the author of Mission of the University, we may map out common knowledge which should be the common possession of all university graduates into five fundamental areas :—

1. The physical scheme of the universe (Physics and Chemistry)
2. The fundamental themes of organic life (Biology)
3. The historic process of the human species (History)
4. The structure and functioning of social life (Sociology)

5. The plan and purpose of the universe (Philosophy, Culture and Religion).

These subjects may be grouped—as the University of Mysore proposed to do—under Physical Sciences, Biological Sciences, Social Sciences and the Humanities. The great end of education is the good life and the good man and the university disciplines are the instruments to achieve that end.

The over-crowding of the universities is a much-debated question. Since the beginning of the century, the population of the universities in India and abroad has grown to unprecedented proportions and during the last few years the pace of this increase has accelerated even more. For example, in Indian universities the enrolment in 1927 was one lakh of students and now it is a little over three lakhs. The problem of numbers raises problems of all kinds and calls for a re-examination of the aim and purpose of a university and the place that should be assigned to it in society.

The reason for the rapid increase in the number of students is a simple one—democracy. The democratisation of education is a very important factor in the situation. Democracy exists where the whole nation benefits by the advantages of community life. Class differences are diminishing everywhere and society is tending to be, in the words of our Prime Minister, creedless, casteless and classless. In the Indian Constitution the stress is laid on democracy as well as on education. The benefits of collective life and civilization can be spread through democratization of education. If education is an instrument for improving man, the natural corollary is a movement of pupils from primary to secondary, from secondary to university stages. The astonishment shown by some people to-day at the rapid increase in the university population and in the number of graduates passing out year after year merely proves that they are not capable of perceiving the full implications of widening the basis of education.

Education is both a phenomenon and an instrument of civilization. An educated people is also a civilized people. A man who can read leads a different life from one who cannot; a university man leads a different life from one who has not been to a university. Educated people have their own reactions, intelligently conceived, to all aspects of life. In principle the university points to a higher human level. The question of numbers is too often considered on a strictly professional plane, that of overcrowding in the so-called university careers. But the university is far more than a professional training centre; it is first and foremost a centre for higher education, for personal training, for humanistic enrichment—in short, the development of the best that is in man. University studies are a means of access to a more abundant life and to a greater cultural and moral excellence. A university man does not necessarily earn more money, but he lives and works better than others. That is why our Babbitts, self-made men who have not studied but who have made a fortune in real-estate and similar avocations, always dream of sending their sons to the university. Thus the increase in the number of graduates represents a raising of the standard of humanity, a development of civilization, a diffusion of culture, enrichment of human personality and a spread of social democracy. The other aspect of the university, that it is a centre for research, is not to be forgotten. Widening and deepening knowledge is a proper function of the university, so also the training of specialists in different branches of science.

If the number of students has doubled or trebled in various parts of the country since the last decade, this increase calls for a corresponding increase in the number of universities, an enlargement of the teaching staff, the buildings, lecture rooms, libraries and laboratories. In these respects we need not follow, as we have been doing so far, the Western models too closely. We must plan our expansion more in keeping with our resources and national culture. Buildings, for example, could be simpler, more graceful, with motifs drawn from Indian architecture and Indian ideas of town-planning. We can dispense with the dreaming spires of Oxford and Cambridge or the sky-scrapers of Columbia and Chicago, though we could well emulate the spirit that dwells within them. Education of the highest quality can be imparted in an inexpensive and tidy structure, having neither the external grandeur of Oxbridge nor the unadorned baldness of Redbrick.

Graduates of the year, you should think of yourself, at the beginning of your careers, as starting off along a straight road of virtue, good work, scholarship and cultural excellence, determined never to stray from it for any purpose whatsoever. Our country needs men and women of high character, great ideals, untarnished honour and informed enthusiasm. May I hope that Karnatak University from which you have graduated, has to-day made a significant contribution to the vast numbers of men and women of quality and accomplishment that the country is calling for ! I want you to be idealists. You will be told that idealists are vague, ineffectual, head-in-the-cloud people who get nothing done. On the contrary all the great achievements in the world have been planned by idealists and most of them have been carried out through idealist inspiration. Of course you should try to be practical idealists—you must see visions, but you must not be content by merely seeing visions ; you must suit the deed to the thought and bring ideals and reality nearer together. Idealism which is another word for striving after the best is the natural and healthy attitude for every graduate of serious purpose. It is for want of ideals and for want of faith in visions and utopias that so many of our young alumni, shortly after they quit the University, fall a prey to scepticism and cynicism. When they come to grips with the hard realities of life, the rosy vision quickly fades off and they affect an air of cynicism which is but an excuse and a cloak for irresoluteness, uncertainty and faint-heartedness.

The university has given you a clearly envisaged goal, a code of behaviour and inspiration and an experience in self-help, self-knowledge and self-reverence. It is for you to develop a firm determination not to swerve from the straight road that leads to your ideals. To sustain you in the battle of life and in the struggle for existence, you need to cultivate inner peace which comes of thinking noble thoughts and avoiding all evil. You have to cultivate the right relation to the most vital fact that there is—the ultimate reality. Finally keep in mind the ways in which you can be of the greatest service to the country whose independence your forbears wrought for you, whose amenities and protection you enjoy and whose revenues, in part or wholly, have defrayed the expenses of your education. The impersonality of the State shall not blind us to our obligations to her, for India will be great in the exact measure that you, through your individual striving, make her great.

Graduates of the year, I wish you Godspeed and conclude with a prayer from Brihadaranyaka Upanishad, "Lead me from the unreal to the real, lead me from darkness to light; lead me from annihilation to immortality."

of centralising all post-graduate instruction, so that by avoiding duplication of work the best possible instruction can be made available to the students. This temporary arrangement will continue until the University is able to equip and staff its own Post-gradute Departments.

The Karnatak University has been able to arrange, from time to time, extension lectures by eminent scholars on a variety of subjects.

Immediately after the disastrous earth-quake in Assam, in August 1950, the Vice-Chancellor made an appeal to all the Colleges and Schools in the University area for help and an amount of Rs. 18,900/- was collected and sent to the Prime Minister's Assam Relief Fund. Whatever the amount of the contribution, this was a very significant gesture. Inspite of our pre-occupations we, as a University, did express in a tangible form and to the best of our ability, a sense of responsibility for the well-being of all the different parts of this great Republic.

Among the notable events of the last two years, I must make particular mention of the occasion when the Foundation Stone of the Administrative Building was laid by Dr. Rajendra Prasad on the 30th of March, 1951.

The first Convocation of the Karnatak University was held on 17th October, 1950 when 135 graduates received their degrees at the hands of our Chancellor, His Excellency Sir Raja Maharaj Singh.

Our University has set before itself the ideal of developing into a residential University with direct responsibility for post-graduate instruction. It will surely be a glorious day for Karnatak when the Karnatak University will have a home of its own, worthy of itself, at Chhota Mahabaleshwar, with residences for Teachers and students and with full amenities for a corporate cultural life. This programme will call for a large amount of money. The needs of our University are many while its resources are limited. We need a spacious Hall for the Library, a Convocation Hall, Stadium and a Printing Press. Our Karnatak cannot boast of industrial magnates. Our meagre munificence is chanelled into local institutions which also depend upon public funds. Examinations, which in many Universities, are sources of income, are with us, heavy items of expenditure. In these circumstances, the University has to look always to the State Government for financial help.

It is a matter of common knowledge that for six centuries, from the sixth to the twelfth, under the Chalukyas of Badami, the Rastrakutas and the later Chalukyas, of Kalyani and again under the Vijayanagara rulers in the 16th century, Bombay Karnatak and Mysore were parts of a single administration. It was by a cruel accident of history that Kannadigas were dispersed into unnatural fragments to suit the administrative convenience of alien Rulers. Nevertheless, the cultural and social life of Kannada people has been flowing throughout the centuries in a steady stream.

The entire Karnatak territory measures about 80,000 square miles and has a population of nearly 2 crores, speaking the same language and linked by the same historic and cultural ties. Once this unnatural division disappears, as it should as early as possible, Northern Karnatak and the other fragments of Karnatak dispersed over Madras and Hyderabad, will form a single unit with Mysore. That will indeed be a reunion and a resurrection of the Karnatak people. May that day dawn upon us soon !

Under the enlightened rule of Your Highness and of Your Highness's royal ancestors, Mysore has forged ahead in its economic and industrial development. The rich natural resources of the North Karnatak associated with the technical competence and industrial experience of Mysore will surely open up a new era of great industrial activity for the United Karnatak. The three-hundred miles of coastline of Karnatak will once more renew our contacts with the world. The impetus to our economic activity will be reflected in our educational and cultural advancement. Our two Universities, the older and the younger, will vie with each other, in a sisterly spirit, in the educational field and avoid wasteful duplication. The University of Mysore has a greater length of years to her credit and an established tradition. Thanks to Your Highness's enlightened patronage, it enjoys unlimited resources. It is as a great patron of education and learning that we feel particularly happy in having Your Highness to-day in our midst. As the inspiring Head of a progressive Kannada State and as the first and foremost Kannadiga, we look forward to Your Highness's continued interest and active leadership of this infant University.
